

DISTRICT 11 REPORT BACK for August 3, 2024

Submitted by Angela H

Next District meeting:

September 7, Saturday, 10am – 12pm at the Presbyterian Church, St Helena or on zoom

Actions Taken by District/Area:

Jo M volunteered to be coffee maker and cookie monster for September

July Minutes approved—Duncan moved to approve and Jo seconded

Items of Interest Discussed:

District Meetings are now recorded and transcribed so if you don't want your last name seen you need to rename yourself on zoom.

Job Descriptions given by officers and committee chairs (Literature and La Vina/Grapevine chair Michael M, Bridging the Gap, Joe T, Tech/Web Chair (will be two separate jobs), Jeff D, no Accessibilities Chair, Unity Day Chair Melanie absent)

Financial Oversight Committee report given by Duncan

Assembly Motions (not discussed but provided as FYI) regarding CNCA extending voting participation at the Area Committee Meetings and assemblies to the Chairpersons of Area standing and sub committees

CNCA 06 extending officer eligibility to same who have served as DCM or DCMC

CNCA 06 continue to provide hybrid functionality for every Area Meeting and Assembly

Presentation by Amara, DCMC for District 4 on Safety: who knew there is a yellow AA Safety Guidelines card!?! There is also a Safety in AA pamphlet/flyer. Safety issues include: sexual harassment, violence, bullying, financial coercion, pressure to conform to religious or other points of view. Groups may ask a disruptive or "unsafe" person to leave a meeting if that person is preventing them from carrying the message. How to communicate safety concerns?

There is a Safety in AA Forum (Hybrid and Bilingual) Saturday October 19, 10am to 4:30pm information on their website, district04cnca.org (Santa Clara County north). There is a survey you can take beforehand, which would be helpful to the organizers. There will be people from the General Service Office, Australia and the UK!

Officer Reports were given; Treasurer's Report included Unity Day expenses report;

Beginner's Meeting—remember to announce at your meetings, they always need support. It is at 5:45pm on Fridays in the Fireside Room at the Crosswalk Church in Napa
